

ESR

Ethnic Studies Review

The Journal of the National Association for Ethnic Studies

Volumes 37 and 38
Black Lives Matter Special Issue

Table of Contents

Black Lives Matter: Imagining and Realizing an Equitable Black Future
Special Guest Editor's Note by Ravi K. Perry	1
What the Black Lives Matter Movement Demands of Ethnic Studies Scholars
A Foreword by Melina Abdullah	5
#Black Lives Matter
Bahar Davary	11
Challenging the System? The Potential for Radical Politics in the Age of Ferguson
Danae Hart	15
Black Lives Matter: Decrypting Encrypted Racism
Basil Ugorji	27
Hyphy Sparked a Social Movement
Andrea L.S. Moore	45
The Black Lives Matter Movement and Why the Response of All Lives Matter is Misleading
Scott Loken	63
Against Critical Race Theory
Paul C. Mocombe	83
The Birth of a Cinematic Storyline Normalizing Violence against Black Lives
James Curiel	107

The Color of Mass Incarceration
Ronnie B. Tucker Sr. 135

Being in One’s Place: Race, Ontology and the Killing of Trayvon
Martin
A Postscript by Ron Scapp 151